

Ryan J. Mooney

Ryan serves the Springfield Area Chamber of Commerce and the Springfield Business and Development Corporation as vice-president of business development.

His primary responsibilities includes business expansion and attraction as well as staff support for the Chamber's Transportation Committee and the Development Issues Input Group. He has served as the project leader for several manufacturing expansions and the T-Mobile call center which created 800 jobs in Springfield as well as numerous other economic development projects in the Springfield region.

In his 10 years with the Springfield Chamber Ryan has developed a number of award winning marketing pieces including the SBDC website. He played a role in the development and current implementation of two successful 5-year economic development capital campaigns. Ryan is also very active in the revitalization of downtown Springfield.

Awarded designation of Certified Economic and Community Developer (CEcD) by the International Economic Development Council, March 2006

Cum Laude graduate of Missouri State University with a BS in Geography and Community Planning

Graduate of the Economic Development Institute of the University of Oklahoma, 2003

Presented with the 2006 "Economic Developer of the Year" award by the Missouri Economic Development Council

Board Service

Member, Missouri Economic Development Council board of directors, 2004-present
President, Downtown Springfield Association board of directors, 2004-2005; Member, 2002-2006
Member, Urban Districts Alliance board of directors, 2004- present
Member, Missouri Transportation Development Council board of directors, 2005-present
Member, Land Clearance for Redevelopment Authority board of directors, 2007- 2009
Member, Missouri Economic Development Council, 1999-present
Member, International Economic Development Council, 2003-present
Member, Ozarks Transportation Organization Technical Committee, 1999-present